

Educational

Once more the mills of learning grind, and fill with grist the youthful mind. The boys and girls have come from play to store a lot of facts away in pigeonholes behind their ears, where they'll be found in future years. All patiently the teachers teach the freckled boy, the female peach, expounding here the A B C, explaining there the rule of three. It is the noblest work of all performed on this old mundane ball, this showing kids the path that leads to mighty thoughts and noble deeds. We all know that and so we pay the teacher 'leven bits a day. We're free with coin to statesmen chaps who hold down divers kinds of snaps; we hand them all the wealth they want and pay their mileage when they jaunt and all they give us in return is eloquence and wind to burn. But hand out decent, living pay to country teachers? Aw' go 'way! It is the custom of the land to sweat and starve that useful band!

CLASSES AT G. W. U.
OPEN SEPTEMBER 29

No Suspension Planned During Annual Encampment of G. A. R.

All of the Deans and Most of the Professors Return to City From Summer Vacations.

There will be no suspension of classes at the George Washington University during the annual encampment of the G. A. R., according to announcements at the office of the secretary of the institution, but due to the lightness of the work at the opening of the college year students will have an opportunity to attend virtually all of the festivities in which the public will be interested.

All the departments of the university will open Wednesday, September 29. Classes will assemble at the usual periods throughout the day, but the students will be detained only long enough for the professors to announce the text books and the subjects of the courses. The first assembly of the students will be at 9:15 o'clock. The remaining periods will start at 10:15, 11:15, 1:45, 2:45, 3:45, 5 and 5:50 o'clock.

There will be no formalities connected with the opening of the university year. The first assembly of the students will be held Wednesday, October 6, at 12:15 o'clock, when chapel services will be conducted in the assembly hall of the arts and sciences building, 2023 G street northwest. Rear Admiral Charles Herbert Stockton, U. S. N., retired, president of the university, will preside.

Faculty Returns to City.

All of the deans and most of the professors have returned to the city from their summer vacations. Prof. William Allen Wilbur, dean of Columbian College and head of the English department, returned recently from a vacation spent in Connecticut. Dr. Howard Lindholm, dean of the College of Engineering, spent the major portion of the summer in Washington. Dr. William Carl Ruediger, dean of the Teachers' College, likewise has remained in the city, devoting most of his time to research work and an intensive study of summer school methods. Dr. Charles C. Swisher, head of the history department, spent the summer in Alaska. Dr. William Cline Borden, dean of the Medical School, is recovering from a rather serious illness. Prof. Richard Cobb, secretary of the university, spent the summer with his family at Cape Cod, Mass. Mr. Cobb now is in a Boston hospital, although he probably will remain in the city until the opening of the university. Prof. Leslie Cleveland McNemar of the department of political science, secretary of the committee on student activities, has been spending the summer in Chicago, taking special work at the University of Chicago. He will return to the city this week.

Admission Stockton has announced the appointment of a new faculty committee on scholarships and reduced tuition, composed of Dean Wilbur, Dean Ruediger and Prof. Cobb.

GAMES OF LIFE AND BALL
BRANCH RICKEY'S THEMES

Evangelist Manager Speaks Before Omo Class at Brightwood Park Church.

Drawing analogies between the game of life and the game of base ball, Branch Rickey, manager of the St. Louis American League base ball club, speaking before the Omo class of Brightwood Park M. E. Church yesterday, advanced the proposition that base ball is a metaphor for life.

"Knowledge is power," he said, "and a knowledge of right living gives to the player the greatest advantage in the game of life. The player who steals a base must be in the pink of condition mentally and physically. He must know when to take advantage of the hazard of being skinned up, for if the mark was worth starting for it was worth sliding for."

"Base ball is the one game which has been professionalized and has remained clean," declared Rickey. "It is a game which develops the highest character in the player. It is almost impossible to be a ball game today, because of the high type of men which have been developed by the sport."

The first assembly of the students will be at 9:15 o'clock. The remaining periods will start at 10:15, 11:15, 1:45, 2:45, 3:45, 5 and 5:50 o'clock.

WOMEN PLAN CAMPAIGN FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE

Speeches and Distribution of Posters Comprise Activities of Woman's Section of Navy League.

Details Being Perfected for Fall and Winter Work by Various Committees.

A speaking campaign, to include women's organizations and women's clubs in cities all over the United States, and a poster campaign, in which posters designed by woman artists are to be displayed in hotel lobbies, stores, business establishments and women's and men's clubs throughout the country, are features of the activities in the interest of national defense planned for the coming fall and winter by the woman's section of the Navy League.

The poster campaign, it has been announced, was suggested by Mrs. Benjamin Reeves Russell, wife of Lieut. Col. Russell of the Marine Corps, and she has been made chairman of the poster campaign committee to supervise the work of the committee.

Several well known woman artists have already signified their purpose to prepare posters for use in the campaign, and the committee has been authorized to give a cash prize for designs found acceptable.

For the proposed speaking campaign a large number of the ablest and most experienced woman speakers in the country have volunteered. This campaign is in charge of a committee of which Mrs. Helena Hill Weed, daughter of Representative E. J. Hill of Connecticut, is chairman. Mrs. Weed was vice president of the D. A. R. for Montana for several years.
